teoman, boy or girl, teho makes the best ade through our Exchange Advertisements turing the months of January and February

You must first advertise in THE EVENING

The Exchange Advertisements of "The Evening World" offer great opportunity to those who wish to exchange Real Retate, Herses, Carriages, Jewelry, Musical Instruments, Bicycles, Books, Dogs.

MAILOR—To exchange, a "Columbis Volunteer Bicycle," 52. Al condition, latest improve-sants, for $70 worth of custom-made clothing. square, 20 World office. WILL SELL for $30 or exchange for anything useful of equal value, an evening dress aut.

WILL EXCHANGE $500 resewood piano (new

CATROAT with Summer cabin, 23 foot, in A1 condition; cost $1.50 last season, for 52-inch bicycle, or salety. R. A. Brongos, G: Rutgers slip.

N. EWFOUNDLAND WATCH-DOG for Physical Rock hens; cocker spaniel (6 months) for reast, cart and berriess; cociliating engine (28, 134) for offers. "Fairness," World Office.

WILL SELL or exchange collection of old coins. C. H. J., 161 Ave. E. Centreville, N. J. SMALL, country place near Long Island Sound; beautiful location; cash or exchange for city of Address C. B. H., Evening World. WILL exchange a handsome 14-cart genta' gold watch for value in coal. D. 78 World

GOLD WATCH, A1 timer, Elgin movement, to exchange for 52-inch hick-der must be in good order state kind. Address Elgin, World Office, N. Y. CARPET, furniture, piano and paintings for large boiler and engine, Duryee, 183 B'way. GREENBACKS Will exchange a reasonable amount for a 314x7 billiard table, if in good condition. Address Billiards, box (8) World Office. INAMM—Will exchange fine town property for email farm with land mostly unimproved, within an hour aride of New York; or would pay cash address FARM, World Office.

A PROFITABLE BUSINESS owner cannot handle; will bear close inspection: exchange or upright plane, folding bed or gold watch. Hopins, 154 East 4;16 st. WILL EXCHANGE no top business-wagon, carry 1,000 nounds, and harness for top phaetop. Address Wagon, World Office.

SURREY WAGON in good order, and horse 14 years old; 1.200 pennds; sound; for a jump-seat rocksway or light driving horse. b. J., bux b

WANTED -Small country place in exchange for rare and valuable paintings and ongravings; will give some cash. Full particulars, address Coungasseur, 340 World, uptown.

WILL EXCHANGE for anything of value bill-iard and pool tables, handsome lil-foot bar, as lice-box, lot gas fixured, saloon mate, &c. James Red, 315 Broadway.

A Fhilesopher.

Bertie Brilliant (driving home from the pagne than he ought)—I say, how much pleasanter it is to ride in a cab and think how much pleasanter it is to ride in a cab than it is to walk than it is to walk and think how much pleasanter it is to ride in a cab than it is to valk!

World" Contributors.

the Competition.

taked if a request to that effect accompanies

Genuine Kind of Ghosts. One sultry Summer night I picketed my horse and took refuge from rain in a de-serted cabin, rolled up in my blanket and slept. I awoke feeling strangely cold; all

I arose and found shutters and door was darkness. tightly closed. An loy breath swept past, a sense of impending swil oppressed me.
Suddenly in the room appeared an intense spark, which increased to a wavering tongue of bine flame.

spark, which increased to a wavering tongue of but flame.

I saw the outline of a man ovolved from its rays, I stood complete, tall, dark. The face was maniacal, the eyes glaring. I sazed at the horrible apparision paralyzed. My dog crawled behind me quivering.

The thing raised its hand, grasuing a knife, and drove tha weapsagainto its breast. Instantly the flame vanished.

I rushed out, calling my dog. He was dead. I rode to the next town. The aroused landlord welcomed me in. As the light fell upon his features I shrank back horrified. They were identically those I had seen in the cabin.

Explanations followed. His twin brother ne cabin.

Explanations followed. His twin brother all committed suicide in the cabin and it all been haunted from that time.

I cannot think of that night now without a undefinable sensation of horror.

COMMERCIAL TRAVELLEE.

Came from the Battlefield. In 1862 I lived in the Shenandoah Valley. and was betrothed to a lieutenaus in the Southern Army. On the 2d of July I exseted him home, but owing to the irregu-rity of our modes of travel did not know at hat time he would arrive. I waited until 2 o clock, and as he did not come I ex-nguished the light and threw myself upon inguished the light and threw myself upon Jounge.

I fell ssieep, but awoke with a start, and ound the room dimly lighted and the lieupant standing beside me, looking x" selly sale and his uniform stall ed with blood.
I jumped up and exclated the lieupant stand for three senator." If the answered:
We ans

Not a Ghost, but a Bicycle A few years ago my father was travelling on the road which he was about to pass that evening. He, not being superstitious, thought nothing more about it.

Going down a hill he allowed the horse to go on it-own way slowly, as it was dark and he had no lamps lit. The dog was sitting on the vacant seat beside my father, who was deep in thought, when he heard a sight lingling of a bell, and almost simultaneously there was a loud thump at the back of the dogrant and a human being flew lover the seat, innocking the dag off.

It sat perfectly still. The dog scamperee of the total seat of the total supersection off to the village they had inst left. The horse tore off as fast as possible to the nex town, and then, as soon as the horse stopped at a hotel, an explanation was made. It was a gentleman riding a beyele and his back broke, causing him to go on it his mad career, and had it not been for my father's carriage stopping him he would have gone on to certain death. C. R. N.

Filled the Ghost with Lead. A party of friends and myself, living in Theatrical Profession.

ing in Brooklyn.

The Ghost Story Contest will end at It is said that New Yorksrs are, after noon of Saturday, Jan. 18. No letters re- all, to have an opportunity of hearing ceived after that date will be eligible to "The Gondoliers" properly sung, and Wonder, then by means of this advertisement compete for the prize.

Wonder, then by means of this advertisement compete for the prize.

All letters received, whether printed or John Stetson's opera company will appear in this much discussed work at the 150 teords a history of the transaction and not, will be submitted to the committee pear in this much discussed work at the send it to "Exchange Editor," Evening of award. No contributions will be re-World. These accounts will be published turned to the writers, unless accompanied, the week beginning Feb. 3. This will be and a Committee appointed to give judgment, age and a request for return, with full tion, which is then to go to the Globe Theatre, Boston. Mr. Stetson has arranged with all other booked attractions A golden double eagle tell be given to the to cancel their dates, so as to permit of person who sends in the best ghost story to an extended run of the opera. Harriet THE EVENING WORLS. Personal experiences should form the foundation of the stories.

They should be addressed "To the Chost Tages the Condollers are to be invest. They should be addressed "To the Ghost Editor," should be written on only one side of the paper, and should in no rese contain over 200 words. The name did address of the writer is required, but with not be pub. wife, Mabella Baker.

John Stetson is credited with having named "The Gondolers," as presented at the New Park Theatre, "The Gone Dollars."

"A Reader."—Mr. Edward Collier is to appear next week in Philadelphia with Harry Meredith in a play called "Perfect Trust." Your clever little puff won't "wash," to be slangy.

William H. Lykens, the gentleman who threshed Maggie Mitchell's husband, was very much incensed because that actor warned managers not to advance money to Mr. Lykens on account of his connection with the company. Lykens is retailisting by announcing that he has dismissed Maggie Mitchell and her husband from his memory, and entreating managers not to show them any favors for his salie. Lykens has a Gilbertson topsyturviness about his constitution.

Frank Blair, of the "Bluebeard" com-Frank Blair, of the "Bluebeard" company, was engaged by Rudolph Aronson to play a comedy part in "The Drum-Major." Mr. Blair attended rehearsals, and thus came to the conclusion that the part was not worthy of him. He declined to appear. Mr. Aronson was rather aunoyed, and wanted to know who Blair was that he should do this. The other day, in Boston, Blair played in "Bluebeard," and Mr. Aronson saw the performance from a private box. In his role Blair had to romark "Who am I?" To which the comedian had to respond "Your name is Mud." This convulsed Aronson. It sounded like an answer to his question, and Blair had the satisfaction of hearing his laughter peal through the theatre.

Miss Leonora Bradley is the understudy for three of the ladies in "The Senator." "I feel like a regular vampire," she said yesterday, "waiting for dead men's, or rather dead women's, shoes. My opportunity can only come when one of the ladies is ill. Awful situ-

Jingo Tyrrell is to be the star of the retold you.

Jingo Tyrrell is to be the star of the retold you.

Mr. Tyrrell dramatized the novel. H. W.
Smart is to be manager; C. Rosenfeld, business manager. The company will

Wifewagon. open in Toronto Jan. 27.

A few years ago my father was travelling through Cornwall. England. He had heard a lot about certain ghosts, which appeared on the road which he was about to pass that evening. He, not being superstitious, thought nothing more about it.

Giong down a hill he allowed the horse to go on it, own way slowly, as it was dark go on it, own way slowly, as it was dark go on it, own way slowly as it was dark go on it, own way slowly, as it was dark go on it, own way slowly as it was dark go on it, own way slowly as it was dark go on it, own way slowly as it was dark go on it, own way slowly as it was dark go on it, own way slowly as it was dark go on it, own way slowly as it was dark go on it, own way slowly as it was dark go on it, own way slowly as it was dark go on it, own way slowly as it was dark go on it. Awful stories of theatrical distress came

According to a London authority Miss Marie Halton, ex of the Casino, has a new opera by Audem that has never been heard in England or in America. The work is being adapted by the perein al
Mr. F. C. Eurnand, and Miss Helton
burns to appear in London. "Fortudantely for me," she says in a Topicot Times interview, "I am so placed that I need not work. In fact, my husband would like me to leave the singe. Ah, bah! they all do: but of course I shall be allowed to stay. I do long to play in London." Dear little garging, effervescent Marie! It shall play in London if it wants to!

When the children in "Bluebeard"

than it is to walk, than it is to walk and think how much pleasanter it is to ride in a cab than it is to walk!

Nobody to Blame but Himself.

[From the Intervalve Weekle.]

Father (who has been addicted to edifying his young son with stories of astonishing feats accomplished by himself in his youth with one hand.

A party of friends and myself, living in the unighborhood of Lockport, N. Y., gathered at a farmer's house to have a jolly time.

A young lady of the company refused all offers of company home, but started alone on horselesse. Myself and friend started alone on horselesse. Myself and friend started alone of horseless. Myself and friend started alo

Laughter's Provinces.

R SHARP TRADERS. CHOIGE BITS OF CHOST-LORE HEARD ALONG THE RIALTO. STRAY SQUIBS OF HUMOR. NEXT SUMMER'S AQUATICS. DOUBLING UP THEIR SALES.

[From the Jewelers' Weekly,] Jeweler (to ascetic maiden lady selecting a brooch)-Madam, would you like an encentre, or would you prefer so (parks? Maiden Lady (severely)—Sir? Easily Accounted For.

1 From the Epoch 1 Editor (to assistant)-That fellow Squibs. has been sending in some very humorous

Wife (looking up from paper)-I always wife docking up from paper;—I always told you that beer would be the death of Mr. Sliver. Husband—Does the paper say that beer killed him? Wife-Yes; he was run over by a brewery Thus Extravagant Language Reacted.

From the Jewelers' Weekly, l Miss Hardcash-Oh, papa! I was down Broadway this afternoon and I saw a diamond ring that was just too nice for anything;
Mr. Hardcash—That's too bad. If it had not been regarded as too nice I should have probably purchased it for your birthday

His Idea of Being Fortunate.

Chance to Make a Good Trade Interesting Tales Told by "Evening Items of Interest Concerning the Wilty Paragraphs Picked Up in Harvard and Yale Eights to Be Chal- Newsboys in Eager Rivalry for "The lenged by the Atalantas.

THE EVENING WORLD will give to the men Three Days Left in Which to Enter "The Gondellers" to Have a Hear- When the Court Pronounced Judg- Interesting Gossip from Baseball Legitlmate Profits Enlarged Through and Bleyeling Circles. the Boys' Ambition.

ten miles.

Lake Saltonstall in a three-mile race, and month of January. Brooklyn or Jersey City. Nei her does to make a match with the parents are counted and recorded by the agents or driver who supplies him and this record will determine which boy is entitled to the prize at the end of the Harvard or Yale, they will challenge Covall.

Cornell.
As matters stand now, the Atalantas are Yallerby (who has won his case)—Dar, Mose Johnsing, I tol' yo' dat der right was bonn'ter perwail!

Johnson (beaten, but unterrified)—Berry well, salt but when yo' sees dat lawyers bill ob yourn you'll tink yo'self left instead ob right!

As matters stand now, the Atalantas are in reality the commpions over Harvard and Yale, since they have defeated both. Hoating men and all who like to see justice done in the athletic world, will wish to see the Atalantas successful in trying to arrange a match with the crimsons and blues.

The Proper Penalty.

(From Life.)

Contributor—How much ought I to get for that poem?

Editor—You ought to get about fifteet. years.

Dave Orr and the New York League management are on exceedingly friendly terms. Do the New York League management to buy Orr's release from Continuous? They need a ratting good first baseman to fill the place left vacant by such a star as Roger Connor.

Dunlap, the great second baseman, may be transferred from the Pittsburg Players' Club to the Philadelphia Players' Club provided a siar man can be secured to play second for Pittsburg.

The New York League Club is angling after Arthur Whitney and has batted its hook with very tempting terms. The handsome third baseman, however, says they will angle in vain, paragraphs of late.

Assistant—Yes: he's been writing them by the bodside of his dying mother-iu-law.

An Apt Characterization.

It will be Ewing and Ewing and Ewing the box to aid keete. John Ewing pitched good bail for Louisville last season. It will be Ewing and Ewing with the

"Yes," said Brown, "one branch of my family tree consisted almost exclusively of milkmen for six generatious."

"Ah, yes," responded the Inveterate Punster, "sort of pump-kin vine."

An Eye to Business.

[From L(fr.)]

"I beg your pardon," said a reporter to a man who stood at the foot of one of the list native heath this year.

Willie Windle, the recently reinstated amateur bievelist, will be one of the Berkeley Athletic Club's team of wheelmen who will beard the British lion on his native heath this year.

The National Cross Country Association has been put on a solid basis. The aunual Spring games of the organization will be heid April 11.

A. C. Banker, the crack bicyclist of the Berkeley Athletic Club, may not be able to race this year on account of the demands of business.

The Atilanta Boat Club had no difficulty in electing their regular ticket last night. The feature of the evening, however, was the enthusiastic reception accorded Capt. Van Raden as he entered the club-room, It was the first day he high been very ill with influenzar

The Hudson River Yacht Club has straining every nerve to win the prize of the portrait of James Murray, aged thirteen years, a maimed boy who is straining every nerve to win the prize of the portrait of James Murray, aged thirteen years, a maimed boy who is straining every nerve to win the prize of the straining every nerve to win the prize of the prize of the portrait of James Murray, aged thirteen years, a maimed boy who is straining every nerve to win the prize of th

Tit for Tat.

(From the Epock.)

Mr. Younger (meeting Miss Winters on the street)—Why, how do you do?

Miss Winters (with a cold stare)—You have evidently made a mistake, sir.

Mr. Younger—I beg a thousand pardons—I mistook you for your mother.

Steward, Sont 7. Hurnagel.

Charleston, S. C., sports are much excited over the match between Billy S. Layton, light-weight champion of South Carolina, and an "unknown," reputed to be a well-known Northern pugilist. The match is for $2,500, and will be fought within 100 miles of Augusta, Ga.

in that respect.

"How is that?"

"The arcuts all know I have a heart trouble which is likely to kill me at any time, and that makes me a bad risk.

"Grace Before the Menl.

| From Mussey's Weekly.|

First Boy (whose father says grace)—Does your father say anything before eating?

Second Boy—Yes; he generally says to my mother: "Why don't you cook more spuda?"

From Mussey's Weekly.|

First Boy (whose father says grace)—Does your father say anything before eating?

Second Boy—Yes; he generally says to my mother: "Why don't you cook more spuda?"

Evening World " Prize.

The Ata'anta Boat Club, of this city, One of the most spirited and practical will challenge the winner of the Harvard. contests inaugurated by THE EVENING Yale race this year. It will offer to row Wonto is that now in progress smoon the winner any distance, from a mile to the newsboys. To encourage these amtitious little merchant princes of the Rowing men remember how the Ata- future, a prize of $20 in gold was offered lantas defeated by h Harvard and Yale in to the lad who should sell the greatest 1871. They outrowed the Yale men on number of copies of the paper in the H within a week afterwards rowed the Har. By the terms of the contest it makes vard crew at Inglesi le, on the Connecti- no difference where the boy may live or out River, eight in less above Springfield, sell his papers, whether in New York, best ug them worse than they did Yale. Breoklyn or Jersey City. Nei her does

JAMES MURRAY, 461 WEST THIRTY-SECOND

Last week Eddy Garroll, a boy who sells papers in the vicinity of the Grand Central Depot, stood at the head of the list. He takes and sells every day 400 the club-room. It was the first day had been out since Christmas, as he has been very ill with influenzar.

The Hudson River Yacht Club has elected the following officers: Commodore, dore, Henry F. Allen: Vice-Commodore, appears above. He is selling on the average a little over four hundred copies of the following officers: Commodore, appears above. He is selling on the average a little over four hundred copies of the following officers: Commodore, appears above. He is selling on the average a little over four hundred copies of the has sold over two hundred copies daily during the past year, and, as perseverance and industry count in contests of this kind, he stands a fair show.

Charleston, S. C., sports are much excited over the match between Billy S. Layton, light-weight champion of South Carolina, and an 'unknown,' reputed to be a well-known Northern pugilist. The Eveniso Would will in justice to all, be decided strictly on its merits; but to be a well-known Northern pugilist. The Eveniso Would will in justice to all, be decided strictly on its merits; but to be a well-known Northern pugilist. The Eveniso Would will in justice to all, be decided strictly on its merits; but to be a well-known Northern pugilist. The Eveniso Would will in justice to all, be decided strictly on its merits; but to be a well-known Northern pugilist. The Eveniso Would will in justice to all, be decided strictly on its merits; but to be a well-known Northern pugilist. The Eveniso Would will in justice to all, be decided strictly on its merits; but to be a well-known Northern pugilist.

The following is a partial list of the boys entered in the competition:

The following officers: Commodore, appears above. He is selling on the average little over four hundred copies of well-known to any boy and industry count in contests of this kind, he stands a fair show.

The following of the contest will, in justice to all, be decided strictly on its merits; but the following of the contest will in justice to all the following of the contest of

His Idea of Being Fortunate.

[Prom Mussey's Weekly.]

Cumso—I've been bothered all morning by a life insurance agent.

Goslin—Oh, I'm more fortunate than you in that respect.

Turning the Tables.

[From the Boston Beacon.]

Tenderfoot (entering saioon at Wayback)

—I—I beg pardon, but will you be so kind as Goslin—Oh, I'm more fortunate than you in that respect.

Tenderfoot (entering saioon at Wayback)

—I—I beg pardon, but will you be so kind as Godle Carroll, Grand Central Depot.

M. Brock, 32d st. and 6th ave....

Smith, 34th st. and 3d ave....

Degman, 34th st. and 3d ave....

Degman, 34th st. and 3d ave....

Degman, 34th st. and 3d ave....

Beware

Coffey, 34th at, and 3d ave.

J. Mahoney, Grand Central Depot
Labey, Grand Central Depot
Doughty, Grand Central Depot
J. Farley, 42d st. and 18th ave.
J. Ruse, 42d st. and 9th ave.
A. Heim
Reilly
Reilly
Reilly

itch Joey

(Frem f.(rr.))
Rev. Dr. Primtose-Honosty is the bost policy, my friend.
Convict-I know it.
Esc. Dt. Priurous-If that's so, then how did you got in here?
Convict-Because I dish't find it out till it was too like.

was too late

FROM MONTANA. HELENA, M. T., Jan. 20, 1832.

FLEMING BROK.
GENTLEMEN: I have taken a great many of DR. . McLane's CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS and fine them toles wonderful pili-all that you claim for hem. They act like a charm in case of biliousness, sisk headache, dysentery, &c. Box 1952.

Cure sick headachs, biliousness, liver complain Cure sick headache, billioneness, liver complaint, dyspensia, hearthurns, indigestion, malaria, pimples on face and body, impure blood, &c., by using pegularly Dz. C. McLane's Celebrated Laven Pellebragard only by Fleming Bros., Pitteburg. Pa. Price 25 cents. Seld by all druggists. Insist on having the genuine Dn. C. McLane's Liver spon asymptotic before the control of the control o

AMUSEMENTS. FIFTH AVENUE THEATRE.

JULIA MARLOWE INGOMAR

ngomer."
THE JOURNAL NAYN:
"She won them from the start."
THE PRIECH SAYN:
"Her rank should be with Nellson and Ander "Unmietakably a beautiful star."
THE EVENING FUN SAVS:
THE EVENING TELEGRAM SAVS:

THE MAIL AND EXPRESS SAYS;
The levelest and best Parthenia of our stage. PROF. CROWNELL. OF LONDON." 220 REGIMENT RECEPTION

METROPOLITAN OPERA-HOUSE. THURSDAY EVENING, Jan. 16, 1890. Tickets

Five Dollars. On sale at Brentano's, Union Square; Tyson's, Fifth Avenus Hotel; Maj. W. R. Pryor, 15 Park ave.; ex-Lieut. Col. D. S. Brown, 8 Thomas st.; Adjt. W. B. Smith, Consolidated Exchange, 60 Broadway; Maj. W. Y. King, Cotton Exchange, of all the members of the Regiment, and at the Armory.

Br adway.

Windson THEATRE. Bowery, near Canal.

Week of Jan. 13. Matines Katurday.

New Sones, The terman Dialect Toys.

New Dances, Comedian, CHARLEST, for the THE VOLLER. STAR THEATRE SATURDAY ONLY. WM. H. CRANE IN THE SENATOR.

Supported by his Admirable Company.

H. B. JACORY 3D AVE THEATRE.

SHADOWS OF A GREAT CITY.

JAN 20. WOMAN AGAINST WOMAN.

A MBERG THEATRE. IRVING PLACE.

Totals, Totals, Saturday, March and

Friday, British Manny, in Venter As well and Friday introduced and the Company.

A Third Totals, Saturday, March and

Friday introduced and the Action as well as a woman's Street and and the Company. LYCEUM THEATRE, 4th ave. and 23id st.
THE CHARITY HALL 3D MONTH.
THE CHARITY BALL Belageoù DeMille's

are offering imitations which they claim to be Pearline, or "the same as Pearline."

It's false—they are not, and besides are

CHAS. A. STEVENSON. | IN | BABY. dangerous. PEARLINE is never peddled, CRITERION THEATRE VULTON ST. but sold by all good grocers.

Manufactured only by JAMES PYLE, New York

HUBER'S MUSEUN GUESS .... HIS WEIGHT.

14TH ST. THEATRE, SEAR OTH AVE.
MAINTEN WEDNERDAY AND RATHERY.
ROBERT MANTELL. THE CORSICAN BROTHERS. BLOUTHEATER DESCRIPTION OF BUT BELLEN A MIDNIGHT BELL

PALESTINE COMMANDERY

tereption, Exhibit on Drill and Ball will be held in the Metronolitan Opera frome on Thursday evening, Jan. 191. Thekes oan he precrees at all leading hotels and from members of the Commandery.

TONY BIRCH'S MINESTRELS.
PASTOR'S Great Stingers. Funny Comedians.
Great Acta Tony Pastor's Company, Tabora in one BROADWAY THEATRE CORNER 420 ST.
George Garactice | FAUST UP TO DATE.
Those Company | Mass St. John as Maragita.
Next Munical THE PRINCE AND PAUPER. NEW PARK THEATRE, Broadway & 15th et. Cillery and THE GONDOLIERS Or D'Oyle Nallyan's THE GONDOLIERS Carasts New Orea Character of Mr. A. M. Palmer. KOSTER & BIAL'S CONCERT HALL

THE ORIGINAL MCGINTY
SHERIBAN AND FLYNN.
Monday uest, Primes Marigoid's Reception
Matiness Monday, Wednesday and Satur

PALMER'S THEATRE.
Las. 4 Nights.
Mr. Mataffeld as Reichard III.
Mat. Thurs, and Sat.
Dr. Jekyli and Mr. Hyde Mat. Thurs, and Sat. Dr. Joseph and Mr. Hym.

MADISON. Begins at R. 100 o'clock. Sat. Mat.
Hydrigh and Control for Buccess of Highrigh.

A.M. Palmer
AUNIT JACK

UNION SQUARE THEATRE,
Union SQUARE THEATRE,
THE CONTROL OF

HENRY DIXEY. THERD MONTH. 102nd to 100th Perf

DENMAN THOMPSON THE OLD HOMESTEAD.

PROCTOR'S THEATRE.

EVE. SHENANDOAH.

Matines To Day and Souventr Night.

H. C. MINERDS PEOPLES THEATRE.

H. JAN 13 Each Frening - Wed, and Sat. Mas. Harry Lacy and The Still Alarm.

CANDAING ARRADVAY AND STRUCT. THE BRIGANDS. Admission, 50e, Seats reserved 2 weeks in advance.

NIBLO'S. 50C, Orchostra Cir. & Bal. 50C,

BLUEBEARD, JR.,

WEDNERDAY, MATINEES, SATURDAY,

(1RAND OPERA-HOUNE,

(1RAND OPERA-

THEISS'S HER LAND AND THE PARTY OF THE PARTY

HARLEM OPERA-HOUSE MARIE WAINWRIGHT, Magnifest Production of TWELFTE NIGHT. BATTLE BURG. PAY and LOTE ST. AT BOARD MUSCO.

BROOKLYN AMUNEMENTS. EE AVE ASADE H. B. JACOBS' BROOKLYN THEATRE.
Matiness Monday, Wednesday and Saturd WAGES OF SIN.

Interspersed with paties, wit and humor. Prices reserved, 20c., 30c., 50c.; no highs CONGRESS HALL
34 and 30 Maujer et., tel, Union ave. and Lorimer
it., Hrooklyn, E. D.
First-class Family React, Grand Concert every evening at 7, 30 P. M. Admission Free. GRAND OPERA-HOUSE Knowles & Morris, THE TWO SISTERS Every Evening. AMPHION Enowing a Morris, Amphion Enough Hangest Amphion of rare on.

Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers

H. R. JACOBS' LYCEUM THEATRE, New Play.

H. Mai. Tons. Thorr. and Sat. — File week. Mallor he was the state of the state Svery evening at 8.15. Mat. Wed. and Sat. at 50s., 75c. and 81. 25c., 50c. and 75c. This Week-JANAUSCHEK.